Home Learning!

This term you will be learning about famous chefs and bakers, following some of their recipes.

The following activities are to be completed once you have finished all of the Food Technology activities in your homework booklets. They are extra things for you to try at home. I hope that you enjoy doing them.

Don't forget to send me your amazing work and any photos of your cookery skills! Keep cooking!

Your child can complete the paper based activities in the following ways: Write, draw, cut and stick pictures from magazines.
